

3 年生用

ゼミコースアウトライン Seminar Course Description

For 3rd year students

Canada Studies (Basic)

教員名(Name) : Brian McNeill

*授業概要 Outline of the contents

Introduction to Canada studies. In this course we will study about the peoples of Canada, and then focus on specific events that happened Canada. Term 1: Introduction to Canada (Canadian history basics, what groups of people immigrated to Canada, what attitudes did Canadians have toward these new immigrants.); Term 2 - Specific events in Canadian history that can show us about 'Canadian' people's attitudes to new immigrant groups.

*授業の形式 How the class is conducted

Each week, students must research a specific topic from "the History of Canada". In class, we will review the research, and then the teacher will give a brief lecture on a/some interesting points from the class, and/or tell personal stories which relate to the theme. Students can ask the teacher to explain any points in detail.

In the first term, students must do one small presentations, and there will be a review test at the end of the term.

In the second term, students must do several small presentations, with a final report.

Requirements: a general interest in Canada. Willingness to participate in group work. Be able to keep up with internet research (in English).

*成績評価基準 Assessment

Assessment: Grades will be based on three factors:

- 1) Weekly in-class group work.
- 2) Presentations
- 3) Final test / report

*使用教科

There is no textbook for this class.