In the first semester, we'll focus on selected songs covering the five popular genres: Country, Rock, Pop, R&B, and Hip-Hop/Rap

In the second semester, we will learn about American Jazz, and the music and the story of The Beatles, the most important group in 20th century music history.

After that, students will choose their own areas of study to present to class members in the final weeks of the semester. Areas include, but are not limited to, the history of Rock & Roll, Tin Pan Alley, Roots music, the music of the 1960s, the evolution of Hip-Hop, Jazz vocal, the growing tolerance for explicit lyrics, etc.
